FAREWELL, DEAR OLD PHENIX

To Phenix High, we utter now the word farewell
For, such a place we've learned to love so well
We'll ne'er forget and will forever praise thy name
The dear old name and scenes will reach high fame
The story that our future should foretell
Our love and thanks are hard for us to tell
'Tis from these walls we each now sadly must depart
Farewell, farewell, dear Phenix, we must now embark.

To Phenix High, we utter now the word farewell
May our lives through our deeds thy glory swell
Giving our best service to better all mankind
And may we pledge to be fair, true, and kind
Yes, we the future generations shall make
God guide us, we the class of forty-eight
As from here on life's highway we must gladly start
Farewell, farewell, dear Phenix, we must now embark.

Tune: Londondery Air

Words by: - Helen Diggs and Alice Samuels
